

THE DENVER POST

THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 2007

Room

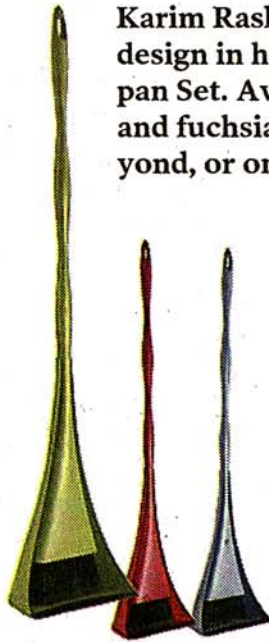

The FURemover Mitt picks up pet hair from clothing, upholstery, carpet and table-tops, and it fits any hand size. $5.99 at Bed, Bath & Beyond.

Karim Rashid fuses functionality with design in his Onda Broom and Dustpan Set. Available in periwinkle, lime and fuchsia. $39.99 at Bed, Bath & Beyond, or online at casabella.com.

The eco-minded Boulder company Twist makes attractive, biodegradable sponges and cloths. $1.99-$4.99 at Wild Oats Marketplace.

DIRT PATROL

Today's cleaning supplies reflect the times: Soothing aromas underscore harmony at home. Sleek graphics point to the public's growing eye for design. And the more Earth-friendly, the better. Plus, all of the best new cleaning tools are designed to free up our space and our time for less grimy activities. — Elana Ashanti Jefferson